NOTICE TO ALL ELIGIBLE SUPERVISORS

Subject: Submission of Eligibility Details for Ph.D. Supervision - As per Last Ordinance of MJPRU, Bareilly.

In accordance with the last ordinance of Mahatma Jyotiba Phule Rohilkhand University (MJPRU), Bareilly, and in compliance with University Grants Commission (UGC) regulations, Guru Jambheshwar University, Moradabad invites submissions from faculty members who wish to be considered as eligible Ph.D. supervisors under Guru Jambheshwar University, Moradabad.

As the university currently holds no prior records of supervisors, all existing supervisors affiliated with MJPRU in the Moradabad division who wish to supervise Ph.D. candidates under Guru Jambheshwar University are required to

Eligibility Criteria (As per MJPRU Ordinance):

- Assistant Professor / Associate Professor: Minimum five research publications
- Professor: Minimum ten research publications

Please note that UGC norms shall not be relaxed under any circumstances. Faculty members must also submit details of research scholars already registered with any other university.

Mandatory Submission Requirements:

- 1. Full reprints of the required number of publications (as per designation and category)
- Details of existing Ph.D. students, including those registered with any University or Institution as Supervisor or Co-

This notice supersedes all previous communications on the matter, as many faculty members have not enclosed the required reprints to support their eligibility. As per UGC guidelines, the number of available seats and supervisor details must be finalized prior to the advertisement for Ph.D. admissions. These details will also be incorporated into the final advertisement for the commencement of the Ph.D. program.

Submission Deadline:

All Principals are requested to submit the compiled information provided by their faculty members in soft copy using the prescribed format (attached herewith) on or before 11/09/2025. Any information submitted after 11/09/2025 may not reflect in the advertised seats and therefore seat allocation will not be possible.

It will be deemed that the Principals have verified and authenticated the claims made by the faculty members before forwarding the applications, ensuring full compliance with the eligibility norms.

Future Ordinance Alignment:

Upon revision of the university ordinance, Guru Jambheshwar University shall adopt UGC norms in full, without imposing any additional restrictions—particularly regarding publication requirements. Until such amendments are formally adopted, the university shall continue to follow the last ordinance of MJPRU as mandated.
